- 4) District Presentation and Reports
  - A. Revenues and Tax Levy Limit 2015-2016 Budget Presentation Mrs. Turner presented a snapshot of the budget. The district received the state aid proposals on April 2, 2015 and we have received an 8% increase in state aid and the tax levy limit has now changed since the last meeting. There has been an increase to special education services and the electrical costs for the district has increased due to the award of bids at the energy consortium. There is an overall increase of 1.96% in the tax levy.
  - B. Draft Budget as of April 8, 2015 Mrs. Turner gave a synopsis of the draft budget.
  - C. Oral Communications Community Connections

- 7) Superintendent Report
  - A. Superintendent Updates Board
    - Ms. Lavine stated the Capital Project in the district is well under way. Mr. Kesler supplied construction pictures to Board of Education members.
    - A developing situation on the Onondaga Nation is a safety concern and she has decided to close the Onondaga Nation School. School buses will not be driving on Onondaga Nation until the situation is resolved. Busing arrangements will be made for students attending other buildings in our district. Ms. Lavine will keep BOE apprised.
    - Our Standard and Poor Rating has improved based on a recent review. Kudos to School Business Official Turner and Treasurer Emily Hayes for this outstanding achievement.
