

M.I.V.

Chapter 1: Most Important Vocabulary
September 2015

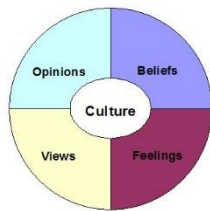

Irrigation

Technology / technique that allowed water to move to locations that would help to grow crops.

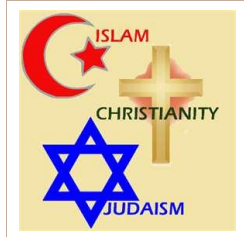

Surplus

More than enough of an item, which allows people to either sell extra goods for profit or not worry about everyday survival.

Civilization

An advanced culture with the time to invest in education, architecture, science and other advanced skills.

Culture

Your personal views, religion, food, shelter – how you live!

Monotheism

Belief in one god

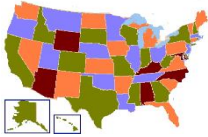

M.I.V.

Chapter 10 Most Important Vocabulary
September 2015

Direct Democracy

Greek city of Athens where all citizens were expected to participate in government decisions in small settings.

Republics

Government form where people elect representatives either elected for profit or not worry about everyday survival.

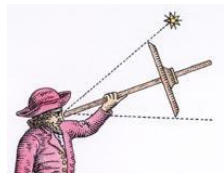

Adobe

Material made of sun-dried bricks. Used by people of the Southwestern part of North America.

Civilization

An advanced culture with the time to invest in education, architecture, science and other advanced skills.

Henry the Navigator

Portuguese prince who helped to finance a school for exploration. Science, Technology and Navigation skills were advanced there.

Culture

Your personal views, religion, food, shelter – how you live!

Monotheism

Belief in one god

Monotheism

Belief in one god